

Catalunya - Hong Kong

Following the runaway success of Catalunya Singapore, the contemporary Spanish restaurant has arrived in Hong Kong, bringing with it a modern Spanish cuisine delivered by 20 culinary experts headed up by Group executive Chef Alain Dehahive Tolosa. They have a combined experience working in some of Spain's Michelin three-starred restaurants including el bulli, el Celler de Can Roca, Mugaritz, Arzak, and Restaurante Martín Berasategui - and you can't get much better than that! Located in Wanchai's picturesque Morrison hill area, Catalunya Hong Kong has a menu defined by its combination of exquisite and authentic Spanish cuisine with a focus on Catalan cuisine (above), a comprehensive Spanish wine list, cutting-edge cocktails by award winning mixologist Dario Nocentini (previously from prestigious eclipse bar in W barcelona), and all to be enjoyed in a chic and trendy setting.
