

Catalan dining comes to Hong Kong

Catalunya Hong Kong, sister restaurant to Catalunya Singapore, has opened in Morrison Hill, the city's newest dining district.

The restaurant is helmed by chef Alain Devahive Tolosa, while the general manager is Pol Porello, both of whom are veterans of elBulli, which was voted world's Best Restaurant five years running.

Catalunya's menu will include signature favourites such as Segovia-style roasted suckling pig, while the wine list features celebrated labels like Allende Calvario 2006.
