Catalunya Hong Kong Launches Catalunya Sundays, Brunch with Passion

June 11, 2013 Lifestyle No Comments Print Email

Hong Kong's hottest contemporary Spanish dining destination, Catalunya Hong Kong, has launched a new Sunday Brunch concept - Catalunya Sundays, Brunch with Passion, featuring weekly changing "off-menu" dishes, their most popular signature dishes and a dedicated playroom for children.

The concept is based around Barcelona's famous Mercat de Sant Josep de la Boqueria, offering a true Spanish feast with different food stations representing the market stalls offering many of Spain's favourite dishes.

"Sunday brunch is a timeless tradition for all the family, and we are delighted to bring this tantalising yet fun experience to Catalunya Hong Kong. Our guests will also have a chance to experience different new dishes every week that they won't find on our normal menu," said Restaurant Manager Pep Miró.

The perfect choice for guests who want to try an array of Catalan dishes, Catalunya's brunch offers enticing food stations such as the "Bakery" with different breads, "Charcuterie" featuring Spain's favourite cold cuts, a "Quesos" station with different cheeses, a "Fish" bar with raw, marinated and pickled seafood such as the signature "Esqueixada", boquerones, clams, sardines and many more. At the "Orchard" station, vegetarians will delight in all types of salads, pickled vegetables and Catalunya's signature tomato tartar. The "Butcher's" station will offer many surprise off-menu dishes such as beef tartar, zoeia ibérica, quail inescabeche and veal head gelatine with roasted ham and foie gras while the "Outsiders" station will offer Catalunya's hearty stews such as the signature veal fricando as well as off-menu delights like Catalan meat balls with cuttlefish.

As no brunch would be complete without eggs and Catalunya's signature hot dishes, guests will be able to order all their favourites such as eggs frito and estrofitados along with Spanish, French and chorizo 'trampo' omelettes, and toasted 'bakini' sandwiches.

The brunch will be headlined by the restaurant's signature Segovian style suckling pig, and traditional pans of paella - only served at brunch - designed for families and groups to share.

To end on a sweet note, the culinary team presents authentic Spanish desserts ranging from iconic fried dough 'churros' with hot chocolate, strawberries & cream and seasonal Catalan fruits to coca sponge cake, cheese flan and chocolate cream.

Catalunya Hong Kong's brunch is served from 12pm to 4pm every Sunday, priced at HK$590 + 10%. For an additional HK$230 + 10%, guests can enjoy unlimited Cava and Catalunya's signature Sangria cocktails - a classic Spanish cocktail done with a twist, as well as fresh orange juice. True to Spanish culture, Catalunya's brunch will be a family affair in a lively yet relaxed setting where each child under 10 accompanied by an adult is free of charge, with highchairs provided for toddlers. There is also a playroom for children between the ages of 3 to 7 with toys, books and more.

In celebration of the restaurant's first Father's Day (16 June 2013), Catalunya will partner with renowned Gentlemen's Shoe Store "Tassels" to offer all fathers a 10% discount voucher. On this special day, a lucky draw will be held and one lucky father will receive the grand prize of a pair of very special made-to-order shoes by "Edward Green" or "Bontoni" (valued at approximately HK$10,000).

For reservations, please call (852) 2866-7900 or email reservations@catalunya.hk.
